LONDON.

March 9. An Engliſh ſhip, employed in the Greenland fiſhery, has ſailed ſo far as to the 84th deg. N. conſequently was not more than ſix degrees from the pole, where are united all the meredians of the earth. The ſea at this latitude was found calm, free from ice, and might be navigated with the greateſt ſafety. We are aſſured that in conſequence of this eſſay, which is moſt certainly fact, ſome Engliſh gentlemen (among whom is Mr. Bankes, already known by his voyages) are determined to ſail this year towards the pole, from whence they intend to attempt to ſail weſtward, towards America, and particularly to try to gain the coaſts of California.---If another nation, equally anxious for the glory of diſcoveries, ſhould attempt to terminate the voyage of Baron de Benioſki by the way of Kamtſchatka, two paſſages may be diſcovered inſtead of one, and there may probably be found two routs to the Indies by the north, as there are already two by the ſouth, one by the Cape of Good Hope, and the other by the way of Cape Horn.

We learn from Roſſes, in the county of Donegal, in Ireland, that a Daniſh man of war, called the North Crown, commanded by the Baron D'Ulfeldt, arrived off thoſe iſlands, from a voyage of diſcovery towards the pole. They ſailed from Bornholme in Norway, the 1ſt of June, 1769, with ſtores for 18 months, and ſome able aſtronomers, landſcape painters, and every apparatus ſuitable to the deſign, and ſteering N. by E. half E. for 37 days, with a fair wind and open ſea, diſcovered a large rocky iſland, which having doubled, they proceeded W. N. W. till the 17th of September, when they found themſelves in a ſtrong current, between two high lands, ſeemingly about ten leagues diſtant, which carried them at a prodigious rate, for three days, when, to their great joy, they ſaw the main land of America, that lies between the moſt weſterly part of the ſettlements on Hudſon's river and California. Here they anchored, in a fine cove, and found abundance of wild deer and buffaloes, with which they victualled; and ſailing ſouthward, in three months got into the pacific ocean, and returned by the Streights of Le Maire, and the Weſt-India iſlands. They have brought many curioſities, particularly, a prodigious bird, called a contor, or contoſe, above ſix feet in height, of the eagle kind, whoſe wings, extended, meaſure 22 feet 4 inches. After bartering ſome ſkins with the country people, for meal, rum, and other neceſſaries, they ſailed for Bremen, to wait the thaw, previous to their return to Copenhagen.

March 13. On Sunday morning was married, at laſt, to the ſurprize of the whole neighbourhood, a Gentleman of Weſtminſter, to Mrs. Mary --------, a maiden Lady of the ſame place. It is very remarkable that this couple have been no leſs than three times to church before, upon a ſimilar errand, and always returned bachelor and virgin. The laſt diſappointment aroſe from a bickering about the day for receiving company, which laſted till the carriage ſtopped at the church porch, by which time they became ſo mutally diſcontented, that deeming themſelves all unfit for ſo cordial a ceremony as the matrimonial one, they agreed to poſtpone the matter, till they could acquire a more halcyon diſpoſition. It is preſumed they ſucceeded in this, as they were finiſhed at the time above mentioned, at St. Mary Axe, at the particular inſtance of the Lady, whoſe partiality for her own name induced her to preſage a favourable omen from the preſidency of the female ſaint.

There is now living at Nora, in Sweden, a woman ſurrounded with more family cataſtrophes than any we recollect to have heard of. Her father was found dead in a ſtreet at Stockholm; her mother unfortunately ſtabbed herſelf with a knife with which ſhe was at work; ſhe had three huſbands, the firſt was executed for having murdered her brother; her ſecond huſband was killed unfortunately ſoon after marriage; and the laſt, to whom ſhe was married 20 years, was alſo killed. Her youngeſt ſon was drowned; and her eldeſt ſon, on account of ſome criminal behaviour, obliged to fly his country. She had four daughters, who cauſed her much ſorrow; ſo that this woman has been unfortunate from her birth to this period, when a child, parent, and wife; and is now, in her old age, reduced to a ſtate of want. This account, we are aſſured, is ſtrictly true.

March 23. It is ſaid that the Ruſſian and Pruſſian Ambaſſadors have each of them demonſtrated very ſtrenuouſly, by order from their reſpective courts, againſt the concluſion of the treaty, which has been for ſome time negociating between our court and the courts of Verſailles, Madrid and Liſbon, which ſtill retards the ratification thereof.

From authority, ſo truly reſpectable as to render the fact paſt diſpute, we are deſired to acquaint the public, that the triple alliance between Great-Britain, France and Spain, has been long upon the tapis, but is now finally and concluſively ſettled. This alliance is entered into, in order to form a counterpoize againſt the northern confederacy, and was ſuggeſted as the beſt expedient in the ſcheme of politics, for preſerving the European ballance of power.

The following is ſaid to be a true State of Lord Bellamont's preſent Situation: On Monday Se'nnight, at which Time the additional Increaſe of Swelling and Fever abated, his Lordſhip's Wound being probed, the Probe ſtruck againſt ſome Body, very deep in the Fleſh, which produced a metallic Sound; upon which his Lordſhip immediately requeſted that the Gentlemen of the Faculty would introduce the Directory, and proceed to cut to the Point; from this they endeavoured to divert his Lordſhip; but he having peremptorily demanded, whether their Objection proceeded from Want of Certainty as to the Situation of that Body on which the Probe ſtruck, or from the Impracticability of arriving at the Body without certain Danger? they candidly told his Lordſhip, that if they were fully convinced the Ball lay there (which was not the Caſe) they could not venture to cut to it for Want of a proper Channel, the Wound being ſo much cloſed, that it was with the utmoſt Difficulty they could introduce the ſmalleſt Probe. Lord Bellamont made Anſwer, that with reſpect to the Situation of that Body, he would truſt to the Teſtimony of his own Feeling; that whether it was the Ball, or any other extraneous Subſtance, the Wound could never be ſolidly healed until it ſhould be removed, that the Knife muſt therefore be aſſiſted by the Cauſtic, he being determined that the Wound ſhould not cloſe until they had arrived at that Body, and immediately pointed out the Direction in which the Cauſtic ſhould be applied, which was accordingly done twice a Day, until Sunday Morning, with the deſired Effect, by which Time the Wound was ſo large as to admit being ſearched to the Bottom with the Finger, and ſo deep, that, from certain unerring Symptoms, the Gentlemen declared to his Lordſhip they muſt not proceed any deeper with the Cauſtic, the hard Body having appeared to be now lying cloſe to the ſurface of the Bottom of the Wound. Lord Bellamont requeſted they would proceed to ſearch for it with the Knife, when, to the great Aſtoniſhment of Mr. Adair, who performed the Operation, it proved to be a griſly Subſtance, which had ſounded itſelf very far below the Point of the Rib. The Form of it was round, and ſo hard and ſonorous, that when the Knife came to the ſurface of it, Mr. Adair, and every Perſon preſent, called out that he was actually cutting upon the Ball. The Situation of it was ſo critical, and from its Depth ſo immediately adjacent to the oblique Muſcles that incloſe the Peritoneum, that Mr. Adair did not venture to uſe any other Directory than his Finger, for which he made Way with the Cutting-knife little by little, which cauſed the Operation to laſt ſome Minutes. When it was finiſhed, Lord Bellamont thanked the Gentlemen for having gratified him in his Conjecture, which, though it did not terminate in finding the Ball, had, he believed, given a Piece of Information full as material to his Recovery as the finding of it would have been, and told them, that as he was now ſatisfied he had acquitted himſelf with reſpect to the Search for the Ball, he would give himſelf no further Trouble about it, or them, nor any farther Interruption in their Treatment of him.---The Gentlemen have not yet come to a Determination as to what might have produced this extraordinary Subſtance, it being ſo much below the cartilaginous Part of the Rib, and ſeparate from it, but are inclined to think that it proceeds from an Injury, which from the firſt Moment they declared that the Rib had ſuffered, and which had been confirmed by this laſt Operation, which has expoſed the Rib to view.

Lately died, near Cork, in Ireland, James M'Donald; he was 117 years and two months old, and of uncommon ſtature, being ſeven feet ſix inches high. When in health, he could eat four pounds of ſolid meat at a meal, and drink in proportion of ſtrong liquor, without being intoxicated. His limbs were larger than his height required; and his hands and fingers ſeemed of that prodigious ſize, that a lady's bracelet might have ſerved him for a ring. He was formerly ſhewn for profit; but that way of life obliged him to be much confined; and his health requiring a good deal of exerciſe, he took to the leſs profitable employment of a ſoldier, and ſerved as a grenadier till after the rebellion.

March 25. Yeſterday afternoon died, at his Houſe in Hertford-ſtreet, May-fair, the Right Hon. Philip Dormer Stanhope, Earl of Cheſterfield, aged 78 years. His title deſcends to Maſter Philip Stanhope, a minor, about eighteen years of age, now at Liepſic Univerſity.

The 3d inſt. died at Vienna, Prince Poniatowſki, brother to the King of Poland, ſaid to be in conſequence of his troubles on account of the ſituation of his native Country; his Lady arrived time enough to take her laſt farewell of him.

Letters from Paris ſay, that the Court of Verſailles only wait to receive ſome advices from the French Ambaſſador at Vienna, after which that Court will declare itſelf an enemy to the three united powers.

We are informed that the Empreſs of Ruſſia has offered two diſtinguiſhed Lawyers of this Country very great Sums, for forming a code of laws, for the better regulation of her Kingdom.

Extract of a Letter from Genoa, February 22.

"The Marquis de Maruzzi, Ambaſſador from the Empreſs of Ruſſia to the Imperial Court of Vienna, has juſt arrived here on the buſineſs of negociating a loan of 3,000,000 florins, for the ſervice of the Empreſs; and likewiſe to ſettle the articles of a treaty of commerce between the Republic and the Court of Peterſburgh, which we hear is greatly in favour of the Genoeſe.

"Three Malteſe frigates and a galley have lately put in here, with four Turkiſh prizes, which they took after a very ſmart engagement of ſeveral hours, off Barcelona. Several Turks of diſtinction were on board, and the cargoes are eſteemed at four millions of florins."

Letters from Vienna ſay, "The Jews will be ſufferers by the diviſion of Poland, and undergo a diſmemberment with the country. Many arts were cultivated, and moſt of the trade carried on by theſe people, who were become exceeding numerous; but they are all ordered out of the country, and the King of Pruſſia has actually ſent a number of phyſicians, ſurgeons, and apothecaries, into Poliſh Pruſſia, to ſucceed the Jews who followed their profeſſions."

March 27. Yeſterday at Two o'Clock the Lord Mayor, attended by Mr. Serjeant Glynn, Recorder, Alderman Bull, Mr. Sheriff Lewes, City Remembrancer, Common Serjeant, Town Clerk, 8 of the Livery, and the reſt of the City Officers, went to St. James's, where the Recorder read to his Majeſty the Addreſs, Petition and Remonſtrance, from the City of London: To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to give the following Anſwer.

I HAVE the Satisfaction to think that my People do not doubt of my Readineſs to attend to their Complaints, or of my ardent Deſire to promote their Happineſs, which I cannot more effectually do, than by reſiſting every Attempt to ſow groundleſs Jealouſies among them.

Your Petition is void of Foundation, and is beſides conceived in ſuch diſreſpectful Terms, that I am convinced you do not ſeriouſly imagine it can be complied with.

Thurſday laſt the following petitions were preſented to the Houſe of Commons, and read, viz. A petition of the Miniſters and Congregations of Diſſenters from the Church of England, reſiding in and near Liverpool; a petition from the Diſſenters at Durſly, in Glouceſterſhire; and a petition from the Diſſenters Meeting at Wotton-under-edge, in the county of Glouceſterſhire, ſetting forth that a bill is depending, for an alteration to be made in ſubſcription to the articles of the Church of England, which, if paſſed into a law, the petitioners apprehend will undermine the eſtabliſhment of religion in this kingdom, under the act of toleration, and, therefore, praying that the ſaid bill may not paſs. Counſel was heard at the bar of the Houſe upon the ſaid petitions, and againſt the bill; and, after a long debate, the Houſe divided, on the bill's paſſing 63, againſt it 14.

Yeſterday a mortifying fray happened between Dr. Goldſmith, the author of the new comedy, called She ſtoops to conquer, and Mr. Evans, the publiſher of the London Packet of the 25th. The Doctor, it ſeems, thought himſelf injured by ſome paſſage in the Packet, and calling upon the publiſher to reſent the inſult, took an opportunity, while Evans was looking over the paper in queſtion, to lay his cane over the Bookſeller's ſhoulders. The compliment was immediately returned by the Welſhman, and a bloody battle enſued, in which the Doctor received two black eyes, and was otherwiſe much bruiſed. When the engagement was over, Mr. Evans called a conſtable, and inſiſted that the Doctor ſhould be carried to the Compter; but a brother author, who was preſent, interpoſing, led Dr. Goldſmith to a coach, and thus ended the fray.

Briſtol, March 27. The many failures that have happened ſince the laſt ſummer, in Great-Britain, have occaſioned an incredible jealouſy and diſtruſt to prevail amongſt all ſorts of people, and now the country gentlemen have withdrawn their large ſums of money, that were conſtantly depoſited in the ſmall banks of this city, New-Caſtle, Hull, Nottingham, Birmingham, &c. &c. reſolved to be their own caſh keepers; and what is ſtill more alarming, the notes and bills iſſued by the Bank of England, are peremptorily refuſed when tendered for payment, ſo that there is now no circulation of that currency. During the rebellion in 1745, when bank paper was thus ſlighted, the monied people of London aſſociated and ſubſcribed an agreement to ſupport the credit of the bank, and to take its notes and bills as freely as the current coin of the Kingdom.

BOSTON, May 10.

Wedneſday laſt the freeholders and other Inhabitants of this town met at Faneuil-Hall, for the choice of Repreſentatives, the number of voters were 419. The Hon. Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; had 418 votes; Mr. Samuel Adams, 413; Hon. John Hancock, Eſq; 417; William Phillips, Eſq; 416.

After the above gentlemen were declared to be duly elected, Mr. Samuel Adams was choſen moderator, in order to tranſact the other matters mentioned in the warrant for ſaid meeting.------A Committee was then appointed to prepare inſtructions for the Repreſentatives, who reported in the afternoon the following draft, which was unanimouſly accepted by the town, and ordered to be publiſhed.

To the Hon. Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; Mr. Samuel Adams, the Hon. John Hancock, Eſq; and William Phillips, Eſq; Repreſentatives for the town of Boſton,

GENTLEMEN,

BY the renewed ſuffrages of your brethren of this town, you are once more called upon to repreſent them in the General Aſſembly: The unanimity ſo conſpicuous in your election at this important juncture, affords the ſtrongeſt teſtimony of the confidence the people repoſe in your approved abilities, and inflexible attachment to their conſtitutional rights.

Your conſtituents have beheld, with indignation, that purpoſed neglect, and inſolent contempt, with which the Repreſentative body of this people have been regarded by adminiſtration. A total inattention to the privileges of the commons in America, has diſgraced almoſt every tranſaction that materially affected the colonies: A clandeſtine, capricious and deſtructive mode of government, couched under the ſpecious umbrage of inſtructions from Majeſty, has been uniformly adopted, and wantonly exerciſed for ſeveral years paſt, thereby rendering the Aſſemblies of commons throughout the colonies, mere cyphers in the conſtitution: For this reaſon, gentlemen, we were almoſt diſcouraged from renewing the choice of members, as INEFFECTUAL for the ſeveral purpoſes, for which they were originally ordained; but ſtill retaining that reſpect to good and orderly government, which has ever diſtinguiſhed this metropolis; agreeable to the charter, which on our part remains inviolate, we once more recommend the important concerns of this aggrieved people to your vigilance, wiſdom and integrity; in confidence that you will regard with jealouſy your own conſtitutional power and importance, of which the honour and welfare of this people ſhould render you extremely tenacious; that you will vigorouſly oppoſe any encroachments on your ancient privileges, and never will betray your conſtituents, by ſurrendering thoſe powers of framing laws and taxes for the people, to any uſurper under heaven.

The conſtitutional mode by which legiſlation and taxation are conducted in Great-Britain, being nothing more or leſs than the exerciſe of the power of the people by their Repreſentatives; this form of government is extended by ſacred compact to the Engliſh dominions in America, therefore the privileges and powers of the commons of this colony reſpecting legiſlation and taxation, are to all intents and purpoſes, as full, expreſs, and uncontroulable within the colony, as thoſe uſually exerciſed by the commons of Great-Britain, within the realm, and alike ſubjected to the reviſion of the King: Theſe powers and privileges were ſecured to our anceſtors by ſolemn covenant between them and the King of England, and perpetuated by the charter to their lateſt poſterity: From the free and full enjoyment of theſe original rights of Engliſh ſubjects, we are determined never to recede; and although they have been repeatedly and daringly invaded, the hand of oppreſſion ſhall never induce us to relinquiſh our title to freedom: We ſtill perceive with indignation, that the Governmental powers of legiſlation aud taxation, by arbitrary claim, are aſſumed, and vigorouſly exerciſed by thoſe who by their local ſituation can have no adequate knowledge of our circumſtances, no kindred feelings in our diſtreſſes, and when ſwayed by a currupt influence, may impoveriſh, weaken and enſlave us.

To the numberleſs grievances flowing from this iniquitous ſource, which we have already frequently and fruitleſly complained of, we may juſtly add, a ſtipendary ſoldiery, ſtationed and continued in the chief fortreſs in the metropolis of this colony, by the inexorable enemies to our free conſtitution: Standing armies have for ever made ſhipwreck of free ſtates, and no people jealous of their liberties, ever patiently ſuffered mercenary troops to be quartered and maintained within their populous cities; the militia of the colony are its natural and beſt defence; and it is an approved maxim in all well-policed ſtates, that the ſword ſhould never be entruſted but to thoſe who combat pro aris et focis; and whoſe intereſt it is to preſerve the public peace. We cannot, therefore, but reſent theſe ſtanding troops within our capital cities, as the appointed executioners of tyranny; and prepared inſtruments to maſſacre the defenceleſs citizens, at the nod of any maſter, who may have authority to appoint or diſcharge, reward or puniſh them.

Thus armed with brutal force, the enemies to our freedom perſevere with alacrity, to complete their infernal plan of enſlaving America: The above atrocious violations of right, juſtice, and the conſtitution, are ſucceeded by the penſioning our Governor, the Juſtices of the ſuperior court, &c. which in effect is bribing them on the ſide of deſpotiſm: Thoſe who by their ſeveral offices, ſhould be the aſylum of public ſecurity and liberty, are no longer the objects of confidence and regard with the people; we cannot but eſteem them as ſubordinate tyrants, entruſted with a rod to ſcourge us, and ſuppreſs that ſpirit of freedom, which is the glorious characteriſtic of America. While they are thus purchaſed with ample ſalaries, extorted from the colonies by Great-Britain, we muſt be jealous of a corrupt influence, whenever an arbitrary meaſure of government is to be carried, or a claim of right ſubjected to the deciſion of our courts of juſtice.

We ſhall not recapitulate the black catalogue of abuſes which the colonies have been ſubjected to for ſeveral years paſt; that we have ſuffered them ſo long, is diſgraceful to us: But we cannot paſs over in ſilence the late extraordinary and formidable innovation in conſtituting an arbitrary court of inquiſition, which has lately aſſumed juriſdiction within our ſiſter colony of Rhode-Iſland, in direct violation of all law and juſtice; who arrogate the enormous power to tranſport ſuppoſed offenders to a remote kingdom, to be capitally arraigned for offences committed within that colony. Agreeable to the conſtitution of the colonies, ſaid court, in the exerciſe of ſuch extravagant powers, are to be held in the ſame contempt and deteſtation with a Banditti of ſlave makers on the coaſt of Africa. We therefore expect you make due enquiry into a meaſure ſo truly alarming, and proteſt againſt every exertion of lawleſs power, which threatens the ruin of the colonies.

Harraſſed and provoked by ſuch repeated abuſes of power, we eſteem it our indiſpenſible duty to demand redreſs; to your wiſdom, to your fortitude, we commit ourſelves, not doubting you will readily purſue ſuch meaſures, as have a tendency to relieve us in the moſt eaſy and effectual manner; for this purpoſe we recommend to your ſerious conſideration, whether an application to the Engliſh colonies on this continent, correſpondent to the plan propoſed by our noble patriotic ſiſter colony of Virginia (which in our opinion is a wiſe and ſalutary propoſal) will not ſecure our threatened liberties, and reſtore that mutual harmony and confidence between the Britiſh nation and the Engliſh colonies, ſo important to both, eſpecially the former, which, if reſcinded from her connections with this continent, muſt eventually fall a prey to her numerous and jealous neighbours.

We have likewiſe the moſt ſanguine expectations that a union of councils and conduct among the colonies will aſſuredly, by the ſmiles of heaven, fix our rights on ſuch a ſolid baſis, as may intimidate our implacable enemies from any future attempt to invade them.

Atteſt. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-clerk.

The meeting ſtands adjourned to Tueſday next at 3 o'clock afternoon.

May 17. At a meeting of the inhabitants of this town, at Faneuil-Hall, by adjournment, the 14th inſtant, the following was voted, nem. con.

WHEREAS it has been reported, That certain perſons, juſtly obnoxious to this town and province, are to be invited to dine with the Governor and Council, on the enſuing Anniverſary Election-Day, in this Hall.------Be it Reſolved, and an inſtruction to the Gentlemen Seleƈtmen, that if a Committee of his Majeſty's Council ſhall apply to them for the uſe of this Hall to dine in, they conſent upon theſe expreſs conditions, That neither the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, and their attendants, nor the Officers of the Army and Navy, ſtationed here for the purpoſe of enforcing unconſtitutional Acts of Parliament by Military Execution, be invited.------It being utterly againſt the inclination of the town, that even one perſon, who has rendered himſelf inimical to the rights of America, ſhould be admitted into the Hall upon ſuch an occaſion.

Upon a motion made, voted, That the Gentlemen Seleƈtmen be directed to wait on the Chairman of the Committee of Council, with an atteſted copy of the foregoing vote.

Alſo voted, That the aforegoing be publiſhed in the ſeveral News-papers. Atteſt. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

Captain Cliſt, who arrived here laſt week, informs, that on the 2d of May, in lat. 36: 50, long. 69, he diſcovered the wreck of a veſſel about two leagues from him, which he bore away for, and it proved to be a ſloop about 80 tons; her jib and fore ſtay ſails, and all her ſmall rigging were gone; her boom was luſhed in the crotch; her ſides were painted yellow, quarters green, and red quarter deck; her hold was full of water, had one water caſk on deck, but no perſon on board. Her pumps were rigged, and her maſt ſtanding.

NEWPORT (RHODE-ISLAND) May 17.

Laſt Thurſday, by a Veſſel in 12 Days from St. Nichola-Mole, in the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, we received Advice that a French Frigate lately arrived there from Old France; that immediately upon her Arrival, all the Veſſels in that Port were ſearched with the greateſt Severity, and the following were taken into Cuſtody, viz. Brig Charlotte, John Fryers, Maſter, Brig Freelove, Allen Brown, Maſter, Brig Charlotte, Mark Anthony D. Wolf, Maſter, and Sloop Ceſar, Thomas Forreſter, Maſter, all of this Port; Schooner Ehnice, Nath. Davis, Maſter, and Brig---Captain Hudſon, both of Boſton; Brig ------, Captain Gurdon, of Marblehead;---a Sloop and a Schooner, belonging to Meſſrs. Shaddling and Co. of Virginia; Sloop St. Andrew, Captain Roach, of New-York; Sloop ------- Captain Crippen, of Philadelphia. The Captain of the Frigate had tranſmitted the Particulars of their ſeveral Cargoes to the General at Port-au-Prince, and as they conſiſted of ſuch Articles as were inadmiſſable by their Laws, it was apprehended they would all be confiſcated. We alſo hear, by the ſame Veſſel, that many others were taken into Cuſtody in the different Ports of that Iſland.

NEW-YORK, May 20.

Tueſday, May 18th, being the day appointed for the annual commencement of the graduates of King's College, in this city, a very numerous and ſplendid audience aſſembled at Trinity Church. After prayers, and a Latin ſpeech by the Preſident, an elegant ſalutatory oration was delivered, with great propriety of pronunciation and gracefulneſs of action, by Mr. Frederick Philipſe. The audience was then entertained with a diſcourſe, on the happineſs of a connubial life, by Mr. Beverly Robinſon; whoſe juſt obſervations on the ſubject did him much honour. The kind and meaſure of diverſions, which may be with innocence enjoyed, were ſtated in a very accurate and agreeable manner by Mr. Shreve, in an elegant oration, which he delivered with much propriety. An entertaining diſcourſe, on the pleaſures of refined converſation, was then pronounced by Mr. Bogart. Mr. Nathaniel Philipſe, next, delivered an accurate and animated Latin oration, on the fatal effects of licentiouſneſs. Mr. Luſh then entertained the audience with an elegant diſcourſe on taſte, which was received with much applauſe. The pleaſures of retirement, and a contemplative life, were then deſcribed in a very agreeable manner by Mr. Harris. Mr. Pell then delivered, with much propriety, an entertaining oration on humanity.

Degrees were after this conferred on the following Gentlemen: Beverly Robinſon, Frederick Philipſe, Nathaniel Philipſe, Corbelius Bogart, and Thomas Shreve, B. A. Jabez Doty, M. B. John Ray, Peter Van Schaak, Philip Pell, Richard Harris, James Creighton; Stephen Luſh, William Hubbard, and Rev. John Marſhall, M. A. Rev. Harry Monro, Albany, M. A. Rev. Joſeph Lamſon, Fairfield, M. A. Rev. John Stewart, Mohawk Caſtle, from Philadelphia, M. A. Iſaac Hunt, Eſq; Philadelphia, M. A.

The buſineſs of the day was concluded with an elegant and animated oration on ambition, delivered by Mr. Creighton, with great Propriety, and with that earneſtneſs and warmth, which never fail to intereſt the paſſions of the hearer. The attention and approbation ſhewn by the audience were highly honourable to him.

In ſhort, it could not but have been delightful to every lover of his country, to ſee the fair ſigns of future excellence, which were given by the young Gentlemen, in general, on this occaſion.

May 24. Wedneſday laſt was held a Convention, in this City, of the Epiſcopal Miniſters of the Provinces of New-York and New-Jerſey; on which Occaſion a Sermon was preached at Trinity Church, by the Rev. Mr. Sayre.

Captain Martin, in 22 Days from Tortola, informs us, that Sir Ralph Payne, General of all the Leeward Iſlands, lately paid a Viſit to that Iſland, regulated their Laws, gave Orders for building a Church, and eſtabliſhed a Clergyman there. The 16th Inſtant, Captain Martin ſpoke with a Whaler, bound for Rhode-Iſland, that had taken 170 Barrels of Oyl.

Laſt Week three Gentlemen, all born in this Province, met together in this City, whoſe Ages amounted to 248 Years, each of them hearty and well.

ANNAPOLIS, May 20.

Laſt Friday was held the Election for this City, when Meſſieurs William Paca, and Matthias Hammond, were choſen by a very great Majority of the Freemen, indeed, without any Oppoſition; much was expected, as Mr. Anthony Stewart had long declared himſelf a Candidate for the City, even before a Vacancy by the Reſignation of Mr. Hall, whoſe Friends in the County inſiſted upon his taking a Poll there. Mr. Stewart's private Character juſtly recommended him to the Eſteem of his Fellow-citizens; but as he was originally propoſed to turn out Mr. Hall, or Mr. Paca, who ſtood high in the Eſteem of the People, and as a ſtrong Suſpicion was entertained of his political Principles and Court Connexions, Mr. Hammond was put up in Oppoſition to him, and on the Morning of the Election ſo great was the Majority of the Voters for Mr. Hammond, that Mr. Stewart thought it prudent to decline.

The Polls being cloſed, and Meſſieurs Paca and Hammond declared duly elected, it was propoſed, and univerſally approved of, to go in ſolemn Proceſſion to the Gallows, and to bury under it the much deteſted Proclamation. A Deſcription of the Funeral Obſequies may not be diſagreeable to the Public.

Firſt were carried two Flags with the following Labels, on one LIBERTY, on the other NO PROCLAMATION. Between the Flags walked the two Repreſentatives: A Clerk and Sexton preceded the Coffin; on the Left, the Grave-digger, carrying a Spade on his Shoulder. The Proclamation was cut out of Antilon's firſt Paper, and depoſited in the Coffin, near which moved ſlowly on two Drummers, with muffled Drums, and two Fifers, playing a dead March: After them were drawn ſix Pieces of ſmall Cannon, followed by a great Concourſe of Citizens, and Gentlemen from the Country, who attended this Funeral. In this Order they proceeded to the Gallows, to which the Coffin was for a Time ſuſpended, then cut down and buried under a Diſcharge of Minute-guns. On the Coffin was the following Inſcription:

THE PLOCLAMATION
The Child of FOLLY and OPPRESSION, born the 26th of November 1770
departed this Life
14th of May 1773
and
Buried on the ſame Day
by
The FREEMEN of Annapolis.

It is wiſhed, that all ſimilar Attempts againſt the Rights of a free People may meet with equal Abhorrence, and that the Court Party, convinced by Experience of the Impotency of their Intereſt, may never hereafter diſturb the Peace of the City, by their vain and feeble Exertions to bear down the free and independant Citizens.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.

Meſſieurs HALL and SELLERS.

AS many Farmers and others, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, have for many Years laſt paſt been much troubled with the Growth and Increaſe of a Weed, known by the Name of the RANSTED WEED, on their Lands, and particularly in their MARSH MEADOWS, I do hereby take this agreeable Opportunity, through the Channel of your uſeful Paper, to inform them, that I have ſucceeded to the utmoſt of my Wiſhes, in entirely eradicating the ſame out of my Marſh Meadows, by this plain and eaſy Method:---I mowed the ſeveral Spots I had of the ſame ſix or ſeven times, during the Time of the Summer, by which Means it never flowered, nor, of Courſe, came to any Seed. My Labour was crowned with this Succeſs, that in the Courſe of a few Years I was entirely clear of this pernicious Weed.

W. J.

Captain Johnſon, from Cape-Nichola, informs, that a few Days before he ſailed a French Frigate arrived at that Place, and ſeized 13 Sail of Engliſh Veſſels, belonging to different Ports on the Continent, the Maſters whereof hired a Bermudian Sloop to go to Jamaica with Letters to the Admiral, requeſting his Interpoſition in their Behalf, but it was generally thought the Veſſels would all be confiſcated, as many of their Hands were returning Home; and that the French are very ſtrict in ſearching every Veſſel from the Colonies, and all counterfeit Coin found on board they confiſcate; but the light Money they detain in their Hands till the Veſſels are ready for ſailing, when it is returned, they being determined to take none but the genuine Spaniſh or Portugal Gold.----On the the 18th Inſtant, in Lat. 34: 23, Long. 71: 37, Captain Johnſon ſpoke the Snow Adventure, Captain Wilſon, from New-Caſtle, on Tyne, for Maryland, with a great Number of Paſſengers, who were very ſickly; and the ſame Day he ſpoke a Sloop, from Virginia for Antigua, three Days out.

Captain Cochran, from Glaſgow, on the 10th Inſtant, in Lat. 31, Long. 64, ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Robinſon, from Virginia for Nevis, 15 Days out; and on the 19th, about 35 Leagues S. E. from our Capes, he ſpoke the Brig Carpenter, Captain Williams, from this Port for Liſbon, all well.
